P. W. Newton is another one of Mansfield's enterprising citizens who believes in keeping everything up to date. He has been making some good improvements on his residence property and also on his property occupied by C. H. Brazeal, which adds greatly to the appearance of the buildings.

PUPILS' RECITAL

The piano recital given by the pupils of C. Walter Beach in the opera house Saturday evening was fairly well attended by an indulgent audience. For many of the children, this was their first appearance in public. In spite of this fact, the little folks deported themselves remarkably well, and commanded an orderly interest throughout. Several who understand how very difficult it is to cause children to get ready for a recital complimented quite highly the instructor of these children, assuring him that his pupils did "just fine."

Special numbers were three pieces for two pianos, the players with backs turned and on opposite sides of the stage. These numbers went through without noticeable error, showing that the pupils had been taught truly to "keep time." Favored numbers were the "Cuckoo" by Ralph Hyton, and "Rustic Dance" by Vivian Miller.

The program follows: America, Mattie Leming and Accompanists

K. C., O. & S. NEWS

G. T. Smythe of Springfield has been appointed agent here for the K.C.O. & S. railroad and has arrived preparatory to assuming his duties tomorrow, at which time General Manager Woods will be here from Ava. C. O. Daves, who has been acting as agent here will return to his home in Ava. He has made many friends here who will regret his departure.

ODD FELLOWS' WORK.

Frank Smalley was given the second degree at the Odd Fellows meeting Saturday.

The Mansfield Hotel serves special Sunday dinners for 35c.—Adv.

ON ROUTE NO. 3.

(Special Correspondence.)

Nice warm weather. Everybody is busy preparing and planting corn.

W. A. Glenn is the village blacksmith of Antrim.

W. L. Kelley and wife were called to the bedside of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Kelly, Monday.

Mrs. W. A. Glenn and son, Leslie, were shopping in Seymour Saturday.

We notice our Mansfield paper has a correspondence from quite a distance—London.

Reece Deckard is home from Springfield with the measles.

Calvin Honeycutt was out riding Monday.

Frank Borders' mother visited him Tuesday night.

William Walters is hauling gravel preparatory to making some cement work.

W. A. Glenn has just received a new supply of groceries.

Frank Borders is the owner of the finest colt in Wright county—he thinks—and he asks every body he meets if it isn't the finest colt they ever saw. He went to work for a neighbor the other day and had to go back home before noon to see how much it had grown.

Mrs. W. A. Glenn has a fine bunch of incubator chickens.

DAISY.

PRAIRIE HOLLOW AND BRYANT

(Special Correspondence.)

Fine spring weather

Mrs. Callie Letsinger and Miss Iva Deaver are on the sick list.

A very sociable and also a very spiritual time was had Sunday at the annual communion and foot washing. Mansfield and other neighboring vicinities were well represented, especially by the young people. It was the 33d occasion of this kind that Rev. Robert Young, the pastor, has led in that same church.

Miss Blanche Moore of Mansfield visited Miss Esther Starnes Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Avery of Mansfield visited Miss Iva Deaver Saturday night and Sunday.

L. M. Roy and wife visited at Amos Roy's Sunday to see Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Amos Roy's mother, who is quite sick.

As Mrs. Minnie Letsinger was tardy Sunday, Mrs. Mollie Roy taught the young girls' class of the Sunday school.

Several of the farmers will replant corn this week.

Miss Lizzie Sullivan is visiting her cousins, Ernest Poly and Leonard Roy. BLUE EYES.

WILL OPERATE MILL

M. Hodge has resigned as carrier of the star mail route between here and Ava—a position he has filled acceptably for the past year—and has leased A. A. Drennan's Square Deal Mill. He will take charge of the business Monday. We wish him success in his new undertaking. John Matney will succeed him as the carrier on the star route.

THE YEOMEN.

At the Yeomen meeting Wednesday evening two members were received—D. S. Cantrell by transfer and Jasper Pool by adoption.

Clarence Smalley was appointed master of accounts, Minnie Morgan, chaplain and W. L. Bonnell, sentinel.

MACOMB MENTIONINGS.

(Special Correspondence.)

Preaching at the Baptist church every first Saturday at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m. and Sunday at 11 a. m. by Rev. G. Chadwell, pastor. Everybody invited.

LONDON

(Special Correspondence.)

Several from this vicinity attended church at Dennistown Sunday

Homer Newton left Saturday for St. Louis to have his eye treated. He will stop at Newburg to visit his sister, Mrs. B. C. Turner

N. N. Wheelchel and wife of Hartville and G. E. Tomblison and family spent Sunday with John Rippee and family.

Walter Odle of Norwood visited his grandfather, John Odle, at Isaac Strong's Sunday.

We are glad to see these show-ers. It gives the farmers a chance to go to town. The streets of London were thronged Monday

Ralph Chapman and wife entertained at dinner Sunday Noah Jones and wife of Rembert, Jesse Matlock and wife and Call Chapman of London

Jewell Newton spent Sunday and Monday with F. A. Rippee and family, near Rembert.

F. A. and H. N. Rippee began shearing sheep at Robert Newton's Tuesday

Hiram Rice and wife spent an enjoyable afternoon Sunday at Isaac Strong's.

Everett and Lavenia Rosevear, Harold and Lenie Pool and Leslie Rice went to Prairie Hollow to the foot-washing Sunday.

All report a very pleasant time at the musicale at Elbert Latimer's Saturday evening.

Cressie Hogan of Seymour passed through here Monday enroute to Hartville.

Misses Susie and Fannie Kelly were guests of Miss Opal Chapman Sunday.

A few of the many friends of Fred Jestus and family gathered at their home Sunday evening to spend the evening in vocal and instrumental music. At a late hour they departed for home, feeling that the evening had been well spent.

Elwood Bogard and sister, Bettie Gaskill, transacted business in Hartville Tuesday.

Remember that Sunday is the regular church day at New Hope church; preaching Saturday at 11 a. m. by Rev. P. Mingus, also baptizing after church. Everybody invited.

ANOTHER CAPTURE

Word has been received here from Sheriff Crawford that John O'Brien, alias Sullivan, arrested there as a suspicious character, had confessed to complicity in the robbery of the Bank of Mansfield the night of April 8. Sullivan or O'Brien is described as having a star on his left leg and an elephant tattooed on his left arm. He claims to have blown several safes during a 14 years' career as a yeggman

One of the four men arrested for safe blowing at Pine Bluff, Ark., has also confessed to a part in the robbery

We anticipate interesting developments in the rounding up of the gang

EYE INJURED

Lon Parmer had the misfortune to run a splinter in his eye while loading cordwood at Coker last week. Dr. J. A. Fuson treated the injured man, who is recovering as well as could be expected from his injury.

Special Sunday dinner at Mansfield Hotel 35c.—Adv.

The farmers were glad of the rain and are getting in their crops in good shape

WANNETA.

ON ROUTE NO. 2

(Special Correspondence.)

Mrs. Wm. Lotzenhizer was a guest of Mrs. Marshall Sunday.

Several people attended church at Prairie Hollow Sunday. It has long been the custom to hold an all day meeting, with dinner on the grounds, the second Sunday in May. We are sure the crowd would have been larger, if the weather had been nicer.

Gertrude Stone of Springfield attended church at Prairie Hollow Sunday afternoon

Mrs. Dennis is still very ill. She was reported a little better Wednesday morning. All of the girls have come. They have been at Amos Roy's all week. John Dennis and family arrived Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Barlow spent Sunday night with them.

James Letsinger and family and Ethel and Minnie Dethridge spent Sunday with Mrs. V. W. Hale and family

Drue Turner, wife and son called on G. W. Brentlinger and wife Sunday.

Vinie Hale and Ethel and Minnie Dethridge called on Leota Brentlinger Monday afternoon
